The fourth round of the series of TOT Workshops in Modern Training Methodologies

EU funded Project “Support for Public Administration Capacity Building in Turkmenistan” launched the fourth round of the series of workshops aimed at Training of Trainers (ToT) in Modern Training Methodologies. The ToT Workshops are taking place during 13-15 May 2019 under the guidance of a professional Trainer – the Project Senior Expert, Mr. Klemen Belhar. Representatives and teaching staff of the Academy of Civil Service under the President of Turkmenistan (AoSC) and other stakeholders are participating in the event.

The objective of the workshop is to work on identified needs and objectives for a train the trainer methodology and illustrate a target group oriented training technique by an example.

The 3-days workshop consists of 3 sessions. In the first day, Mr. Klemen Belhar is presenting types of negotiations and negotiations in different occasions. The second and third sessions will be about effectiveness and efficiency: understanding differences and similarities, practical assignment: scope of the organization, implementing principles of effectiveness and efficiency in the organizations: public administration, education, enterprises, as well as effectiveness and efficiency as a managerial tool.

Mr. Belhar’s ToT workshops develop teachers’ training skills through various new approaches, which at the same time increase trainees’ willingness to conduct relevant trainings in their respective institutions. These mutual efforts of the trainer and future trainers build a strong base for ensuring the sustainability of further activities in the field of capacity building of civil servants in Turkmenistan.
